ARMED OKLAHOMA RIOTERS BATTLE CONSCRIPTION

2 Russian Strongholds Are Captured By Teutons

CZERNOWITZ AND KIMPOLUNG ARE ABANDONED BY SLAV ARMIES

Pivotal Cities In Muscovite Southern Line Evacuated Under German Pressure

KAISER PIERCES FOE LINES IN FLANDERS

Partial Success Gained By Enemy, Field Marshal Haig Report Admits

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 3.—The capture of Czernowitz by Austrian troops was today announced in Vienna dispatches. Czernowitz is an important city in Bukovina and one of the southern pivots in the Russian line.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 3.—Kimpolung, one of the strong strategic points in Bukovina, toward the southernmost end of the Russian line, has been evacuated by the Russians, it was announced today. The war office announced the retirement under pressure of the Austro-German forces.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—A German drive against Infantry Hill, east of Monchy Le Preux, was successful in part last night, Field Marshal Haig reported today. The enemy temporarily held positions of the British front line.

Early at night the enemy renewed his attempts to drive us from Infantry Hill," the statement said. "On a half-mile front he succeeded temporarily in possessing himself of portions of our front line. At two points our counter attack regained part of the lost ground."

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Fighting was again against an engulfing sea of mud, as against the enemy, British troops were still consolidating their gains by local attacks today. The weather was slightly improved, but massed infantry actions were practically out of the question. The artillery, therefore, was invoked to continue the pounding of the German line.

Early today further counter-attacks by German picked forces were thrown back at several points along the line where high ground permitted some freedom from the unending mud of the Flanders fields.

With last night's attacks in the Ypres-tongues sector, the Germans have launched at least five assaults to attempt recapture of this ground.

BIG ALLY DRIVE NEAR IN BALKANS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Big offensive operations in the Balkans against the Teutons will come soon, allied agents here said today.

This development is a result of recent conferences here and abroad among allied diplomats and bears more or less directly on Italy's recent demands for more active work against Austria.

Italy's irritation had subsided to a marked degree today. Russia has sided with her in the demand that the United States declare war on Austria and apparently the other Entente nations have told Italy that there will be no immediate separate peace with Austria—the thing Italy opposed.

It is regarded as significant that peace talk out of Vienna is now being loudly cheered by representative German newspapers. The State Department continued silent on the Austrian situation.

SYMPATHY STRIKE ON IN PICKFORD HOME

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3.—There's a "sympathy strike" in the Pickford household. Mary Pickford, famous screen star, is doing the cooking; Lotie performs the menialities of maid, while Mrs. Pickford, their mother, plays the role of housekeeper. And all because the servants walked out on a "sympathy strike," following dismissal of a maid, who attacked Lotie Pickford with a hat pin. The maid's case in police court was postponed.

S. A. WOMAN ASSIGNED TO STUDENT WORK IN OFFICE OF SANTA FE

Railway's Action Anticipates Time When Men Are Called By Draft

For the first time in the history of the local depot of the Santa Fe Railway company a woman has been assigned to student work in the office.

Anticipating the time when women will have to take the place of men in railway work to relieve them for war duty, Miss Jane Humphrey is preparing herself for that service. She has been attending a training school in Los Angeles and after a brief course there has been assigned to active student duty in the local office.

She proved a most efficient student in the school and was "sent out on the road" in a very short time after taking up her studies.

"I am delighted with the work," said Miss Humphrey, "and believe it is one of the best ways in which I can render a service to my country in the moment of its distress."

Miss Humphrey is a Santa Ana woman and is well known here. She was assistant librarian for a number of years.

COMMANDEERING OF SHIPPING IS IMMINENT

Board Ready to Announce Its Program of Taking Over 2,000,000 Tons

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Commandeering of shipping under construction in this country will begin immediately. The shipping board is ready to announce its program for taking over of about two million tons now on the ways and also taking over the ship yards.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—That Japanese cargo ships will soon be traversing the Atlantic, assisting the allies in their effort to move food and supplies to Europe, appeared likely this afternoon. It is admitted that the State Department has made arrangements whereby probably Japan will furnish ships in exchange for steel supplies. The Japanese embassy stated that the request from America would be granted.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Prospects of a big Balkan drive: America's extension of her embargo and a better feeling in Italian diplomatic quarters over the Austrian situation, marked today's war developments.

Some diplomats said the United States may declare war on Austria soon.

Extension of the American embargo to cover steel products may force Japan to place some of her shipping in the Atlantic as the allies and the United States desire. Meantime the neutrals have been asked to present their food needs to the United States for sale.

These needs must be kept at a minimum for this government has determined that none of its products shall reach Germany through re-export.

While these executive and diplomatic matters brewed, Congress talked vacation prospects for about September 15.

The food control and survey bills were before the House.

The Senate recessed, waiting final action by the finance committee on the $2,000,000,000 tax bill. A report is expected tomorrow.

Peace talk will break in the Senate soon, as Senator Stone proposes to speak at the behest of the American Union Against Militarism.

GRANDMOTHER ARRESTS HONEYMOON COUPLE

ONTARIO, Cal., Aug. 3.—Because her granddaughter married a dumb man after swearing she was 18 years of age, when, her grandmother claims, she was but 14, Mrs. Marie Torreas caused the arrest of the honeymooners, Ralph Alvarado and his bride, after a few short days of wedded bliss. The girl is charged with perjury. Mrs. Torreas will do everything to have the marriage annulled.

CALL FOR $500 IS ISSUED BY RED CROSS OF SANTA ANA

In Order to Keep Work Going Ahead Here Immediate Funds Are Necessary

The Red Cross of Santa Ana needs $500 right away.

People of this vicinity are called upon to raise the money. The need is immediate, and the donations are to be in cash.

The funds in the treasury of the Red Cross here have been used to carry on the work at headquarters. Materials have been bought, and the expenses have taken up the money raised by memberships and social and other affairs. With a splendid working force, the Santa Ana chapter and its branches are going ahead rapidly.

None of the army fund is available as yet. A requisition is being forwarded to Washington for $2500 from the $20,000 and more raised in Santa Ana. However, that $2000 may not reach here within two months, possibly three months.

In order to keep the work going here, money must be had right away. At a conference this morning the finance committee concluded that the quickest way to raise the money is to appeal to the people for it.

That appeal is herewith made. Any person who will give any sum whatever should leave it with Harry Hanson, treasurer of the Red Cross, at the Farmers and Merchants' National Bank, or with any of the other banks of the city.

There was a meeting of the executive committee of the Red Cross yesterday. A constitution and by-laws for the chapter were read, and will probably be adopted at the next meeting.

AUSTRO-RUSSIAN PACT NEAR, IS REPORTED

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 3.—Russia and Austria are "on the verge of an understanding," according to the declaration attributed to President Huysmans of the International Socialist bureau, in today's Handelsblad.

Austria, Huysmans declared, is not claiming anything from Russia. The Polish question is to be considered as a matter between Russia and Germany.

ESPEE STRIKE NEAR SETTLEMENT, IS WORD

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Settlement of the differences which threatened to precipitate a strike of $500 trainmen of the Southern Pacific railroad is near, both sides declared today.

A final conference between W. R. Scott, general manager of the road, and the committee representing the four railroad brotherhoods, began early today.

Neither party to the controversy would make a statement as to terms of settlement, but it is understood the company and employees will amicably adjust all grievances on which they can agree and the others will be arbitrated.

Today's meeting is a continuation of a three-hour conference late yesterday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Pleas of guilty to charges of violating American neutrality by recruiting in San Francisco for the British army previous to America's entry into the war, will be entered by Dr. Thomas Addis and Ralph K. Blair, it was reported today.

SONS DECLARE FATHER WAS MURDER VICTIM

AZUZA, Cal., Aug. 3.—Sons of John C. Evert, whose body was found yesterday in the ruins of his burned cottage, claim he was the victim of murderers and have set up an investigation today. They claim Ebert was robbed and murdered, and his cottage fired to destroy evidence of the crime. A can containing nearly $1000 in gold was found in the ruins. A much larger sum and jewelry should have been there, the sons assert.

8 U. S. GUNNERS LOST LIVES AS DIVER SANK S. S. MOTANO

Yankee Death Toll In Sinking Recently Is Bared In London

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Eight American gunners aboard the Standard Oil tanker Motano were among the twenty-four persons lost when the ship was sunk by a German submarine recently, it was learned today.

Five of the naval gun crew were saved among the twenty-seven survivors.

The Motano sank within a minute after she was struck.

FOR EXEMPTION AFFIDAVITS NO CHARGE MADE

Several Notaries Will Not Accept Fees For Acknowledgments In Draft

Several notaries public are not making any charge for acknowledgments to affidavits to be filed with the exemption boards of Orange county.

Under the state law a notary has the right to require a fee for every acknowledgment. He also has the right to take acknowledgments without making any charge.

Since every claimant for exemption must have not only his own affidavit but also the affidavits of two or three others, the saving in the aggregate for the men of draft age will be considerable, if every notary public will offer his services free.

Two At Courthouse

At the courthouse there are two officials before whom acknowledgments for exemption affidavits are being taken free of charge. County Clerk W. B. Williams is one of the officials and Deputy District Attorney W. F. Menton is the other.

C. T. Johnson, foreman at the Register office, has volunteered his services, and will receive acknowledgments at the Register office any time tomorrow or Monday or later, between 8 a. m. and 4 p. m., excepting during the noon hour.

Any other notary public who desires to volunteer his services to help out the claimants by taking their acknowledgments free should telephone to the Register, and a list of the volunteers will be published tomorrow.

Answering Questions

Many questions are being asked of the members of the exemption board that is sitting at the courthouse. Today a large number of affidavit blanks was handed out by the board. No acceptances for service can be made until after the physical examinations begin. When a man is passed by the physicians, if he has no exemption claims to present, can be immediately put upon the roll for the quota of 181 for this district.

FREIGHT EMBARGO ON S. P. GULF LINE LIFTS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—The freight embargo of the Southern Pacific against shipments via the Sunset Gulf route will be lifted at midnight, it was announced today. The embargo has been in effect since July 11.

TAFT SEES CANADA AS TEUTON WAR PRIZE

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—That Canada would be one of the first prizes demanded by Germany were she victorious in this war, was the belief voiced today by William Howard Taft. The Monroe doctrine would be worthless, and the indemnities demanded would bankrupt all for years to come.

British Aerial Feats Told "Baby" Flier Braves Death Thrilling Gun Battles Rage

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS (United Press Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN THE FIELD, Aug. 3.—An eighteen year old "war baby" making his first flight alone over enemy territory, was awarded the "palm" today among England's airmen for sheer audacity in the amazing list of aerial exploits heralding the opening of the Flanders offensive.

The youngster swept far over the enemy territory and then swooped back, flying within a few feet of the ground. He spied a detachment of German infantry crossing a bridge and promptly let loose with his machine gun. Utterly disregarding the hail of rifle fire they turned upon him, he circled back and forth, barely over their heads, his machine gun rattling away. He saw four or five corpses before the Germans gave way and sought shelter in nearby ditches. The airman swooped around a little more, found his quarry too well covered up—and then winged blithely on his way.

SWOOPS OVER MOTOR

Next he swooped over an open motor car on a wide road, letting loose his machine gun fire at an officer in the tonneau. The machine turned into a side road and its driver opened wide the throttle. The officer turned against his adversary, a few feet aloft, and began firing with his automatic revolver.

The "war baby" felt he would not be so unsportsmanlike as to return the officer's feeble pistol fire with his machine gun, so he stopped the latter and from the air staged a revolver duel with the flying enemy. Suddenly the

Flier Calls Battlefield Bird's Eye View of Hell

BY W. S. FORREST, UNITED PRESS STAFF CORRESPONDENT

PARIS, Aug. 3.—"A birdseye view of hell," he wrote the United Press from "somewhere at the front" today. "The land was pock marked by yawning craters and holes, welling with water and wounded men struggling through the mud. Tanks wallowed through the swamps like monsters."

"I flew at an altitude of about 200 feet," he wrote the United Press from "somewhere at the front" today. "The land was pock marked by yawning craters and holes, welling with water and wounded men struggling through the mud. Tanks wallowed through the swamps like monsters."

"The old enemy first and second lines could be traced with difficulty. German wire entanglements were buried. Down below I could see tiny figures of men—French and British infantry—'digging in' far in advance of their objectives."

"Stretcher bearers could be picked out, crawling back with bandaged wounded. A German Albatross (biplane) could be seen half buried in muck. Further back, scurrying from shell hole to shell hole, the gray of German infantry could be discerned. The enemy fought desperately but ineffectively, yielding steadily."

"Hundreds of spans bridged the stagnant trickle called the Yser canal and over these bridges scurried men and supplies."

"I could see artillery hurrying to advanced positions. Pack mules carrying machine guns, more infantry, vans of munitions struggling forward."

"Over all this dark scene of carnage lowered black skies pouring an unceasing torrent of rain. The roar of guns was indescribable."

"Hitane explosions punctuated the continuous fury of sound. 'The storm increased in fury with the intensity of the combat below.'" garded as certain if the government withholds passports to such British delegates.

On the other hand, if the Lloyd-George ministry decides to grant passports the conservatives will raise a great storm.

In Paris two resignations from the Ribot ministry were reported up to the premier today—those of Minister of Marine Lacaze and Minister of Blockade Cochon. They followed a new vote in the Chamber of Deputies approving a resolution of confidence in Ribot, reaffirming France's peace aims. The vote was 395 to 70. The exact reasons for the Lacaze and Cochon withdrawals were not made clear, but are presumably due to criticisms against the naval or submarine policies of these ministers.

CAMP FREMONT WILL BE READY BY AUG. 15

CAMP FREMONT, Menlo Park, Cal., Aug. 3.—If the Twentieth National Guard division is not in camp here by August 15 it will be because it is not completely organized and not because the camp is not ready. That was the statement today by army officers building the camp.

Six ditch digging machines are working on the water system.

HUGE MOB BLOWS UP RAILWAY BRIDGE

Anti-Drafters Marching Upon Town, Threaten to Storm Stores For Arms

SIZE OF TURBULENT CROWD IS GROWING

Department of Justice Hears of Violence Planned In Georgia, N. Carolina

ADA, Okla., Aug. 3.—Two hundred armed citizens are prepared to engage the anti-draft mob in battle if it tries to enter Ada. The mob, numbering 300, is within 12 miles of Ada.

Two youths who were impressed, but who escaped, claim that a dream of a revolution is inspiring the rioters.

"They talk of revolution in Russia, and say the time has come for one here," one youth said. "They plan to seize railroad trains, towns and cities in this region. Then they will be joined by thousands who will take control away from the government, they say."

"The situation is reported 'alarming and dangerous.'"

ADA, Okla., Aug. 3.—The first violence against the draft has broken out in Seminole county and is spreading here, through Pontotoc county.

A railway bridge at Francis has been dynamited and burned and traffic was halted for twelve hours today.

The mob, composed mostly of tenant farmers and many negroes, is marching toward Francis and threatening to storm the hardware stores there for arms.

All members of the mob are heavily armed.

On the march through the county the mob is impressing recruits.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Threatened armed resistance to the army draft in isolated points of Georgia and North Carolina is being investigated today by the department of justice.

Mountaineers and farmers in these sections are reported to have supplied themselves with new Winchester rifles and ammunition to fight the draft.

Special investigators have been assigned to make a careful probe. Stern measures will be taken to repress any rebellion.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—More than seventy-five per cent of the Americans called up for national army examinations so far claim exemption, according to reports to the United Press from all parts of the country today.

Disqualifications for physical disability vary considerably, running much higher in the big cities than in towns which are free from congestion.

In New York city, 1,427 out of 5,415 men examined were found possibly eligible. Aliens and physically unfit totalled 1,827, while 2,161 claimed exemptions.

Based On Dependents

Most of the exemption claims are based on the plea of "dependents." Some districts, however, report numerous freak appeals. The government will investigate every claim based on dependents.

In Chicago indications are that forty per cent will fail in the physical tests. Of the balance, fifty per cent

CRY FOR PEACE IS GROWING IN COUNTRIES OF SCANDINAVIA

Norway, Sweden, Denmark:
During Past Year Brought to Poorhouse Verge

BY ARTHUR E. MANN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
STOCKHOLM, Aug. 3.—During the last year the Scandinavian countries, Norway, Sweden and Denmark, have come to an unanimous agreement on the late General Sherman's famous remark, but have appended "for neutrals."

Economically, Scandinavia during the last year has been brought to the point where she faces the prospect of the poor house if peace does not come within twelve months. Short of food, particularly bread and potatoes; with coal being sold by the lump and lacking raw material such as iron and textile fibers to keep her factories running; the cry of the people for some time past has been: "Peace and bread!" and "Down with the blockade!"

In Denmark where the generation of electricity requires the use of coal, elevator service has been suspended in most of the apartments, hotels and offices. All cafes and restaurants are obliged by the government, to close at 11 at night in order to save electric light; the number of street lights have been greatly diminished and all theaters and movie houses close at 10 o'clock. The cafe hours are particularly obnoxious to the people as clubs are practically unknown in Denmark and the cafe life is therefore an important social activity.

Economic Changes
In Sweden and Norway, where much of the electricity is generated by waterpower, the closing hours are later and one doesn't have to climb stairs as much.

In Denmark the coal shortage has forced the government to prohibit the serving of hot dishes in hotels and restaurants after 9 at night. Train service throughout Scandinavia has been reduced. During the latter part of the past winter wood was burned by many of the householders, and all this spring and summer owners of timber land have been cutting and shipping firewood to the cities and towns.

Gasoline, tires and lubricating oils are three related products which the combination of the allied and German submarine blockades have made very scarce in Scandinavia. Taxi fares have risen and the number of cabs on the streets diminished. In Copenhagen, Denmark, it is forbidden to hire a taxi to take one beyond the city limits and here it is optional with the company whether to accept such an order from a passenger.

Iron Scarce
Among other importations, iron for manufacturing is extremely scarce as are textile fibers such as cotton and linen. Many of the factories and mills in Scandinavia have been forced to cut down their weekly production in order to run a full day and in many cases a considerable number of workmen have been discharged.

But it is the food situation which has been worrying Scandinavia the most for the last six months. Bread cards have long been in use throughout Scandinavia. In Denmark the proportion of black bread to white on the cards is two to one and in Sweden there is no white bread except for invalids and the sick. Sugar cards are also required except in hotels and cafes where the management handles the pastebreads.

The allied blockade has very greatly limited the importation into Scandinavia of livestock fodder, of which most of that used before the war was imported. In consequence there has been a decrease in the amount of meat cattle and milk cattle, the latter decline affecting the supply of milk and butter and cheese.

Potatoes a Luxury
Potatoes, the importation of which has practically ceased, have for many weeks been a veritable luxury. The hotels, cafes and better class of pensions still have them daily, principally because they either have stocks on hand since before the shortage or are able to outbid the householders. Among the latter potatoes are a great rarity, many having them only once a week.

Politically, the last year of the war has caused considerable unrest among the people, much dissatisfaction with the governments over the way in which they have handled the negotiations with England and Germany in the blockade question and an increase in the strength of the Socialists. There have been several cabinet crises in Sweden, Norway and Denmark. In the latter country the Socialists finally won a seat in the ministry and the present liberal government was also forced to let in a conservative, both members without portfolio. In Sweden the Socialists have taken the form of a demand for municipal election reforms led by the Socialists and radicals. In fact the three governments, regardless of party, are under almost continual attack, having to take the blame of the food and goods shortage.

Housing Criticized
The municipal housing problem, with unusually high rates, has also drawn the fire of the government critics in the large cities of Scandinavia. In fact, some of the more radical Socialists in Copenhagen where they control the city government, have been talking of requisitioning unoccupied houses, regardless of ownership. The trouble has been caused by the thousands of extra people who have flocked to the cities; neutral business men and helleigrants from all the countries at war. For the last year the hotels and pensions have been continually full, with rooms reserved for weeks ahead.

One of the most interesting effects of the war on Scandinavia during the last year is the gradual change in sentiment toward the allies. Despite the tightening of the allied blockade, the enormous German destruction of Scandinavian shipping with the accompanying loss of sailors' lives, has resulted in an increase of allied sympathy in those circles which were pro-German for the first year and a half of the war. Then, too, America's entrance had more certainly doomed Germany to defeat in the minds of her former supporters. This is particularly true in Sweden, where until the last six months, most of the German sympathizers were perfectly confident of her victory. The democratization of Russia, with the consequent removal of much of Sweden's fear of that country, has also worked well for the allied cause here.

Determined Neutrality
But so far as any departure of their neutrality goes, the last year has probably strengthened the common determination of Norway, Sweden and Denmark to keep out of the war. This policy was thoroughly threshed out and arrived at, at four Scandinavian foreign office conferences during the last year.

WESTMINSTER NEWS LETTER

WESTMINSTER, Aug. 3.—The Westminster beef dump opened Wednesday morning with J. Fuller as weighmaster, Jake Price, Harry Mausberger and Thomas on the dump.

Loads are coming in quite rapidly and the majority of the ranchers have all the help needed, although a few are holding off from starting taking out their crops on account of contractors refusing to sign up the maximum wage allowed by the sugar company.

Five ranchers from the Hellman ranch are hauling to the local dump and W. D. Johnston, Will Nankervis, Green Bros., Morris Terry, J. P. Weinschenck and Ed Mase are taking out beets in this immediate vicinity and hauling to the dump here.

W. D. Johnston is using the large beam plow furnished by the company and is decidedly pleased with the good results of its work. He has it attached to his own engine, the 75-horsepower engine that belongs to the company not yet having been put in condition for the work.

Rev. W. T. Wardle left Friday for Los Angeles to spend the week end, expecting to return home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pyie attended the funeral of Attorney E. E. Keech Thursday afternoon. They had been friends for a number of years.

W. E. Blackstone of Los Angeles will preach at the 11 o'clock service at the local Presbyterian church next Sunday morning. His subject will be "The Return of Our Lord and the United States in the Present War—In Relation to Prophecy."

Evening services are discontinued for the month of August during Rev. Wardle's vacation, but the Christian Endeavor Society will meet at the usual hour. Next Sunday evening the finishing chapters of the Mission Study book, "Living Christ for Latin America" will be taken up for study.

Mrs. A. E. Hare, Mrs. Lou Nankervis, Mrs. George Wright, Mrs. A. J. Foster, Miss May Fokler, Ross Fokler and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Treney, all members of the local I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges, attended the funeral Thursday afternoon of W. R. Morgan, father of James Morgan, an officer in the lodge.

A number of automobiles with and without trailers and several other conveyances, all loaded to their full capacity, conveyed the crowd to the beach.

The morning was spent in boat riding on the bay by the majority of the crowd and then came the crowning feature of the day for all—the big dinner in the upper lunch room. Seven

$3800 PER CAR NEW RECORD, IS OBTAINED FOR EX. LEMONS

Auction Sales at Boston and New York Bring Heretofore Unknown Prices

Lemon growers, members of the Tustin Lemon Association, a member of the Orange County Fruit Exchange, are elated today over record auction sales made in New York and Boston.

On Wednesday, in New York, a car brought approximately $3800 and yesterday a car sold in Boston brought approximately the same sum. Never before in the history of Orange county, it is stated, have like prices been realized from lemons at auction.

The car sold yesterday in Boston contained three grades of lemons, prices obtained being $9.95, $10.15 and $11.10 per box. The car sold Wednesday in New York contained two grades, boxes bringing $10.90 and $10.50.

Lemon prices throughout the East are at a high level, not alone as concerns at auction but outside sales as well.

The Valencia market is improving.

HEAT WAVE AT END; RAINS BRING RELIEF

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The heat wave had completely passed today. Four men were killed by lightning in the storm which broke last night after four days, during which the temperature was almost constantly above ninety, causing nearly 200 deaths and 1000 prostrations.

BOSTON, Aug. 3.—With thirteen dead and seventy prostrations within twenty hours, the heat wave appeared to be broken early today. The rain and shifting winds brought relief.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 3.—Philadelphia was comfortable once more today. The heat wave, after causing 143 deaths, dissolved last night in a downpour of rain which brought about a 25 degree drop in temperature.

EXPLAINS LAW UPON DEER TRANSPORTATION

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 3.—The opening of deer season in the coast range mountains on August 1 is bringing many inquiries to Frank M. Newbert, president of the State Fish and Game Commission regarding the new law permitting the transportation of deer from an open to a closed district.

In explanation of this new law Newbert says that in order to bring a deer from an open to a closed district the hunter must swear to an affidavit telling where he killed it and when.

Then if he desires to distribute the venison among his friends he must first obtain a permit from the State Fish and Game Commission. This, says Newbert, is to protect his friends from arrest and also to guard against violations of the game laws.

Newbert says that deer will be very plentiful this season. In fact, he says, in some districts they are becoming so numerous that complaints are being received that the animals are doing damage to crops.

AUTHOR SUICIDES AS TALES FAIL TO SELL

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3.—Driven to desperation because he could not sell his writing, though he had been successful on previous occasions, Walter Kerr, 55, committed suicide at his lodging house early today, by using chloroform. MEMORIAL SERVICE WILL BE HELD FOR ATTORNEY KEECH

Court Order Today Names Committee to Draw Up Set of Resolutions

This morning Judge Thomas made a court order setting next Friday morning at 9 o'clock as the hour for holding memorial services in the superior court for Attorney E. E. Keach, who was killed by accident Monday afternoon.

The court order follows:

ORDER

"Man proposes but God disposes." E. E. KEECH, an affectionate husband, a kind father, a lawyer of rare attainments and splendid ability, a man of unimpeachable character and a high-grade citizen, is dead. His death came as a thunderbolt from a clear sky on July 30th, 1917. He was at the zenith of his usefulness—for he was only 61 years of age—but his work is done. He has laid down his working tools. Today we find "no designs drawn on his trestle-board."

No lawyer had a higher conception of the ideals of our profession than he. He ever preached and practiced the highest ideals and insisted on the maintenance of the best traditions of our profession.

In that continual warfare "with the lying deities and vanities of this world," in which it is necessary for the citizen who stands out for civic righteousness to be always engaged, Mr. Keach was never found except in the ranks of the faithful.

For nearly a third of a century he has practiced his profession at this bar. His home was with us. He raised his family here. He was in truth one of us. He was not claimed by our profession only. He belonged to this entire community during his life. We have tried cases both with him and against him. None is there who can truthfully say that he was not always a painstaking and able associate or a worthy opponent, as well as a dangerous adversary, but one who always "played the game square."

He was president of the Orange County Bar Association at the time of the tragic ending of a most useful life. We all admired him as a lawyer and loved him as a man.

It is therefore altogether fitting and proper that this court should take some step toward the perpetuation of a suitable as well as a substantial record of so praiseworthy a life.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Friday, August 10th, 1917, at the hour of nine o'clock of that day, and the Court Room of Department Two of this Court in the Court House in the City of Santa Ana, County of Orange, State of California, be set as the time and place for the conducting by this Court and the Bar of this county, of suitable memorial services to commemorate the life and services of our fallen brother; that W. B. Williams, County Clerk and ex-officio Clerk of this Court, mail to every lawyer of this bar a copy of this order and urge his presence at that service.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Messrs. L. A. West, R. Y. Williams, E. J. Marks, H. C. Head, H. J. Forgy, S. M. Davis and Walter Eden be and they are hereby appointed a committee to prepare for and present at said time and place to this Court suitable resolutions as hereinbefore suggested; that said committee elect one of their own number to act as chairman thereof.

IT IS ALSO ORDERED that this order be entered at length in the minutes of this Court that the same may be kept as a permanent record thereof.

Done in open court this 3rd day of August, 1917.

W. H. THOMAS,
Judge of the Superior Court.

WALLACE DAVIS IN CUSTODY OF FEDERAL OFFICERS

Former Resident of Santa Ana Charged With Impersonating Federal Officer

Wallace W. Davis, formerly a practicing attorney in this city, and recently in the city assisting at the local navy recruiting station, was arrested in Los Angeles yesterday on charges of issuing bad checks and impersonating a Federal officer. He is said to have issued bad checks for nearly $500 and to have posed as a secret service man looking for slackers.

During his residence in this city Wallace got in bad with the courts here in a number of instances, and left here under a cloud. He married a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. R. R. Raymond and later she divorced him.

SILENT PROTEST OF LYNCHING, I. W. W. PLAN

Chief's Body to Be Followed to Butte Depot By 4000
Industrialists

BUTTE, Mont., Aug. 3.—A silent protest against the lynching of Frank H. Little, executive board chairman of the I. W. W., will be staged by about 4000 members of the I. W. W. late today or tomorrow when Little's body is sent to Chicago or to Fresno, Cal., for burial. The miners will march behind the body in silent demonstration as it is carried to the depot.

Local members of the union, who have the arrangements in charge, early today assured Major Sargent, commander of the battalion of the Second Montana Infantry, on duty here, that there will be no violence. The officer informed the miners that he had no objection to an orderly parade, but that he had orders to prevent the occurrence of any disorder.

Withholds Evidence
William Sullivan, attorney for the I. W. W., today still refused to turn over evidence which he claims to have implicating several men in the lynching, to the authorities. Officials say that Sullivan is merely "bluffing" and admit they have no tangible clue to the identity of the lynchers. It is likely that additional rewards will be offered by the county and state.

Two hundred messages from local I. W. W. unions all over the country have been received. All express resentment at the lynching and many contain threats of violence. Plans for a nation-wide demonstration by all I. W. W.'s in every city during the hour that Little's body is being lowered into its grave, are being made.

Pickets have been appointed by the I. W. W. to meet all incoming trains and direct members of the organization, many of whom are expected to come here as a result of Little's death, to the headquarters. Circulars distributed by the I. W. W. today openly charged that Little was murdered by mining company gunmen.

Albert Speare, a barber, found the vigilante warning—"3-7-7" with the words "First warning" and signed "F.

C. C." written on his door today. It is thought the initials refer to the "Pearse-Connelly-Club," a radical Irish home rule organization. Speare is a naturalized American citizen who was born in England. He declares a shotgun is waiting for the self-appointed vigilantes when they come for him.

U. S. TO RUN VESSELS SEIZED IN PACIFIC

TO MEET NECESSITY

In Congress and out of it throughout the nation, a great many people are protesting against the unusual amount of legislation proposed and already passed, which is greatly increasing the power of the executive branch of the government.

That class of people who can never see anything changed without being sure that it is the wrong thing to do, profess to be greatly alarmed at the increased power of the executive and foresee a downfall of democracy. They cannot understand that war brings about abnormal national conditions that necessitate radical changes in the ordinary progress of our political life, just as sickness, an unusual eruption in the normal function of a man's physical being, makes it necessary that one should submit patiently when he is ill to a complete change of diet, habits and exercise, that would be absurd and unreasonable when in health.

Democracies make war unwillingly. Every member of our nation hates it, but it has been thrust upon us and it is better that every citizen of the great republic should perish in defending it rather than submit to the program of world domination upon which German autocracy has so far progressed unchecked. Let us not stop to haggle over non-essentials. We must win in this war or life is of no value to us or our children. Whatever unusual powers we now extend can quickly be withdrawn when peace is restored.

Some men have power but lack purpose, which is the motive power to make latent power powerful. The man who has interests in many worthy objects, but not enough conviction to make him feel that he is one of the men in all the world who must push to success the object in which his interests are centered, is like an automobile with no engine to run it. The absence of the engine does not show from the outside. The machine appears complete, but it does not get anywhere.

Up to June 30 the treasury has received more than sixty per cent cash for the Liberty Loan. As only twenty per cent was due by June 30, this means that three times the required cash had been paid by that time. Many people paid the whole amounts due for the bonds on or before June 15. More than a billion dollars was paid ahead. It doesn't look as if the country was hard up.

Since the war began more than $200,000,000 of American capital has been invested in the manufacture of dyes. Moreover, the leaders of the new British dyestuff industry say that with the close of the war they will not only be able to supply all British needs but also to export large quantities of these products. Thus, Germany has lost this valuable trade.

In England over 7,000 inmates of reformatories have been permitted to enlist in the army and they have taken it as an opportunity to redeem their past records. A careful record of their achievements was kept and it has been a most surprising one. A high percentage of those supposed ne'er-do-wells won some high distinction in the service.

Call it embargo or export control, or any other name you like, but by some restriction let a final stop be put upon the constant stream of food that is flowing into Germany to strengthen their resistance, through the neutral nations of Holland, Switzerland and the Scandinavian countries.

With Malice Toward None

By Henry James

The Pert Pacifist
Recently a certain clique of pacifists held a meeting which the daily press had the excellent taste to ignore or to mention in a slighting way. One chronicler said that the meeting was attended mostly by "nice old men or eager middle-aged women," which doubtless was the truth.

Of course, everybody wants peace, but the pacifist is the only person unable to see how this will have to be obtained. He or she is a mischievous and meddlesome busybody, extremely annoying to a real person. Naturally—unless subsidized, or filled ed with hatred for their country—they are not particularly to be blamed, each being subject to acquittal on a plea of non compos mentis.

If the silly critters could but see that they are playing into the hands of the enemy, perhaps consciences, even though beclouded by intellectual mists, would be able to perceive the light.

Out of the Frying Pan
Berkman gets liberty on bail after having been sentenced for two years, and immediately he loses the liberty while he stands trial for a capital offense.

He didn't seem to enjoy the frying pan, and it is probable that he will find the fire still less adapted to the promotion of pleasure.

Polyglot
Forty-five languages are said to be spoken in Cleveland, a typical American city.

Doubtless English is among these languages, and here and there it may be somebody speaks it correctly.

Plasters
Decrepit old men past the age of labor have been selling court plaster from door to door. Somebody started the tale that this was infected with germs of leprosy, tetanus, anthrax and other unpleasant specialties, and immediately there was a panic.

It doesn't take much to scare some people.

Hope is expressed that the bewhiskered gentleman will show his appreciation at least to the extent of not having the cartridges fired back.

Not Worrying

Ex-Senator Clark, whose income runs into the millions monthly, or even weekly, says that he never worries.

I wouldn't, either.

Constitutionality

It is said that the supreme court is to pass on the constitutionality of the draft law.

The other day a large and uninvited mator struck this coast. Why doesn't the supreme court pass on the constitutionality of that?

Opening China
An American concern is about to enter upon a $75,000,000 contract in China. In doing this it has the full permission and approval of China.

Nothing more seems to be necessary.

Shy of Cash
The ex-car is said to have no income now, beyond an item of $90,000 a year, and he feels keenly the pinch of poverty.

It would be possible to mention several worthy persons in this country who have even less, and are not complaining. Something wrong with Nick's training.

Pulls
Charges are made that politicians are pulling in favor of military berths for their friends.

Naturally such accusations are a part of the present situation, and are bound to be made, particularly by those whose pulls have not proved effective.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Captain of Detectives Duncan Matheson today took personal charge of the prosecution of Frank C. Oxman, charged with subornation of perjury as an outgrowth of the Thomas Moon bomb plot trial.

Mayor Rolph has ordered Chief of Police White to make a thorough probe of the Oxman charges and White at once detailed to the case Captain Matheson, who headed the "bomb bureau" organized immediately after the preparedness parade explosion.

are asking exemption. Ten per cent are aliens.

In Milwaukee 435 of the first 800 passed the physical examination, but marriage exemption claims are running high. St. Paul reported only 17 out of 147 physically fit and not asking to be exempted.

Seventy-five per cent in Minneapolis claimed exemption. Ninety men out of a hundred qualified physically, however.

Atlanta
Atlanta's early returns indicated six out of seven men asking exemption because of dependents and four of five physically fit. Eight of the first twelve called up in Boston sought exemption.

Twenty men were exempted in one Detroit district. Seventeen passed—all claimed exemption. Of the first 400 examined in Pittsburgh, 67 were accepted, 80 were physically unfit and the rest wanted to be exempted.

Philadelphia reports indicate two-thirds will object to army service. Of 362 called, 214 were accepted as physically o. k.

Indianapolis reported 24 out of 37 claiming exemption and nine unfit. Four recruits were obtained from 37 called.

Cleveland examined 728. Exemption requests came from 364, while 221 were disqualified physically. Most of the 364 were married with children. Seventy-five per cent of the 250 passed the surgeons in Richmond.

Washington
In Washington, D. C., 72 per cent claimed exemption. Only 185 men were accepted after 1,251 examinations. Lincoln, Neb., reported 83 examined, 68 probably passed, 25 exemption claims. The first man called in St. Louis asked to be exempted.

Exemptions averaged 73 per cent in Des Moines, Iowa. Five per cent there were physically unfit. In the far west and on the coast examinations start next week.

FIRST S. F. EXEMPTIONS GO ON RECORD

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—The first exemptions from military service in San Francisco went on record today. Four men were exempted by board No. 6 because they were German subjects.

Many other claims for exemption are in, ranging from a man who wanted to get out of military duty because he was going to marry as soon as his first wife's interlocutory decree of divorce was made final, to another man who said he couldn't get an affidavit of dependency from his wife because his mother-in-law had abducted her.

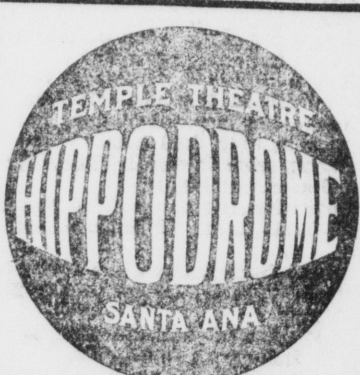

NON-ARRIVAL OF FORMS DELAYS EXEMPTIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Although San Francisco exemption boards are ready to proceed with examinations next week, there will be some delay due to the non-arrival of the forms from Washington on which exemption claims are to be made out. To fill the shortage, the state printing office is turning out a supply.

SOCIETY

FOR EASTERN FRIENDS

Mrs. L. H. Neff Hostess Yesterday For Mrs. J. C. Morrison of Omaha

A very delightful afternoon was passed yesterday at the home of Mrs. L. H. Neff on East First street, when she was hostess in honor of Mrs. J. C. Morrison, her daughter, Miss Viola Morrison, and niece, Miss Arleen Morrison, who have been spending the summer here from Omaha, Neb. The ladies are mother, sister and cousin of Mrs. Ted Shaw.

The home was made attractive with clusters of pink roses and pink amaryllis and Mrs. Neff was gracefully assisted by Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. Barry McPhee.

The time was happily spent with social chat, fancy work and watching the pretty play of the babies of the party.

Cooling refreshments of ice cream and cake were passed late in the afternoon, the guests being as follows:

Mrs. W. B. Dennis of Orange, Mrs. Nat Neff, Mrs. George McPhee, Miss Viola Morrison, Miss Arleen Morrison, Mrs. Barry McPhee and Mrs. Ted Shaw.

WIENER BAKE

Laguna Beach Scene of Jolly Outing Last Night By Merry Party

On Thursday night Chas. Kaufmann and family and Mrs. Genall, of Oshkosh, Wisconsin, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. H. Dale, for the summer, Miss Gladys Corson, Miss Nettie Crutchfield and Ray Echols of Santa Ana, Alvin Teal of Los Angeles and John Davis of San Francisco, motored to Laguna Beach in Kaufmann's Packard, driven by Walter L. Kaufmann, for a wiener bake given by the Kaufmann family.

Starting at 6 o'clock the party arrived at Laguna at 7:30, and immediately built a fire and started the feast, which consisted of wieners, buns, pickles, olives, several kinds of cake and ice cream and candy. After the roast the party stretched blankets on the sand and gathered around the fire, telling ghost stories and singing until 10:30 o'clock, when they left Laguna Cliffs for Laguna, where more refreshments were purchased.

On the road home singing was enjoyed and the party arrived here at 11:30 o'clock. The trip was very delightful, owing to the joyful crowd of eleven and the ease with which the Packard pulled all the hills on high gear.

LEMONS BRING OUT THE HIDDEN BEAUTY

Make this lotion for very little cost and just see for yourself.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to bleach the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quart pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months.

When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.—Adv.

Now, for goodness sake, if you are a good patriot, don't go and lay in a supply of lacy lingerie, silken robes and fussy footgear against the impending frivolous fall famine. If you do you will be in a class with those poor sports who have around buying up all the loose canned goods and sugar at the first hint of food conservation and sent the prices kiting for the rest of us. Just sit tight and dress right.

FASHION LETTER

BY MARGARET MASON
(Written for the United Press)

Not even contented with censoring news And foodstuffs and dyestuffs and most of the booze

The War God's now threatening to censor our shoes.

Dame Fashion may set the styles but alas Old Man Mars upsets 'em. At least he's getting ready to and by fall it looks as if we would have to dress by governmental rule rather than the latest hints from Paris.

Over in Germany where the women are all frumps anyway, it can't be much of a hardship that the government has regulated just how and what they shall wear for the last year or two.

Even in England the government has taken a hand in the dress proposition. They have begun at the foot and decreed that shoes shall not exceed seven inches in height because the cost of leather is so much higher. Considering the looks of most Englishwomen's feet even before the war that doesn't seem much to upset me much.

American tooties are another matter indeed and here's where the shoe pinches. There's a special board in Washington that is going to regulate what goes on our feet and our backs and all frumps in Germany. They gave their occupation as hotel-keepers, and their license is to be returned to the Hotel Metropole, 242 American avenue, Long Beach.

They gave their occupation as hotel-keepers, and their license is to be returned to the Hotel Metropole, 242 American avenue, Long Beach.

WORRY RESULTS FROM REALTY TAX RULING

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 3.—The ruling of Attorney-General Webb that insurance agents are exempt from the requirements of the act passed at the last legislature, providing for the licensing of real estate brokers, agents, salesmen and solicitors, is causing Freeman H. Bloodgood, state real estate commissioner, considerable worry.

Webb's ruling is interpreted to mean that any real estate company that is an agent for an insurance company does not have to take out a real estate license, providing the company has secured an insurance license from the state insurance commissioner.

With this insurance license costing only one dollar the company can sell real estate, and a bond cannot be required of the company to protect those dealing with it, which is the main object of the real estate license act. Nearly every real estate company in the state, says Bloodgood, is agent for an insurance company, and if so is exempt. "And we have no recourse," declared Bloodgood.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

PROMISES HE WILL BE PEACEFUL MAN

Justice Cox Admonishes Husband That Mother Knows How to Care For Baby

Castalino Pezizado admitted that he had had a row with his wife. He had had a disagreement with her because she would not feed her baby on cow's milk. She did not think cow's milk was good for the baby and preferred to let the babe continue to subsist on the food nature had provided. Her persistence angered Castalino until he became peevish.

Castalino was brought into court on a battery charge, and Justice Cox found him guilty. He gave the man a suspended sentence for ninety days, told him to go home and behave himself.

"You let your wife feed that baby the way she wants to feed it," admonished the court. "She knows more about what the baby needs than you do."

Castalino works on the Stevens dairy ranch at Fairview.

John Esenrich of Fullerton, charged with disturbing the peace of his neighbor in a row over some plums, pleaded not guilty. His trial was set for August 15.

NEW STATE LAW GIVES WIDTHS FOR TIRES

Information of Interest to Beet Haulers Given By Deputy A. E. Koepsel

For the information of ranchers who are hauling sugar beets, Deputy District Attorney A. E. Koepsel has looked up the new state law regulating the weights that can be hauled per inch of tire upon paved roads of the state and counties of California. There is an impression out that the law applies only to the state highway. That impression is erroneous.

The state law provides that the limit of weight that can be hauled is 600 pounds to the inch of tire for steel tires and 800 pounds for the inch of rubber tires. That is, a wagon or truck of four wheels, each wheel having a four-inch tire, has a tire width of sixteen inches, and can carry 9,600 pounds, no more.

The law also provides that there shall not be over two trailers allowed. Each trailer must have a brake, and the rear trailer must carry a red light at night. The only exception to the provision for a brake upon every trailer is that a light camping trailer need not have a brake.

The limit of weight that can be carried upon any wagon, no matter how wide the tire, is 30,000 pounds for a four-wheeled vehicle. On six wheels, provided the axles are at least ninety-six inches apart, 40,000 pounds can be carried.

MESOPOTAMIA PROBE CAUSED BY DOCTOR

BY LOWELL MELLETT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, July 8 (by mail).—There's an English surgeon named Carter who is always making trouble for himself. Some years ago he was professor of materia medica, pharmacy and morbid anatomy, as well as curator of the museum at Grant College, Bombay. Walking down the street one day, carrying all this title, he met a native suffering from a rare leg ailment, one that meant amputation at an early date, and danger to the native's life. He explained the situation to the native and offered him five rupees for the privilege of performing the amputation that afternoon. The native grabbed at the bargain and his life was saved.

But the next morning Carter was awakened by a congregation of halt, maimed and blind natives outside his house, all clamoring for the opportunity to earn five rupees.

The dispatch of Indian troops to Mesopotamia resulted in the appearance there of Major Robert M. Carter, Indian Medical Service. Very soon he was in trouble with the D. A. and Q. M. G. for insisting, long after his insistence had been frowned upon, that medical conditions must be made better.

"I threatened to put him under arrest and said I would get his hospital ship taken away from him for a meddlesome, interfering faddist." This is the language attributed to the D. A. and Q. M. G. in the report of the Royal Commission on the Mesopotamia mess. The incident might have ended just this way, but for the fact that by the time he had got this official into this frame of mind, the noise had reached Sir John Nixon, Commander-in-Chief, who caused an investigation to be made. The result was that steps were then taken to remedy as far as possible the consequences of the terrible earlier neglect.

And out of the whole sad story of the first Mesopotamia campaign, as made public by the Royal Commission's findings, about the only paragraph of commendation is that given to the work of the meddlesome doctor.

TELLS STRANGE TALE OF DELAY IN TRAVELS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—How Ferdinand Schmidt started in May, 1914, from Antwerp for his old home in Austria, planning to make the trip by sea and how, thus far, he is no nearer his destination than San Francisco is the story revealed in a suit for wages which the luckless sailor has filed in the Federal court.

OF COURSE

without a job, one day in 1914 he met the captain of the German steamer Alsace and was offered a job. Was the ship bound for Austria? The captain thought it would be at an Austrian port in a year or so. Schmidt shipped.

The vessel was rounding Cape Horn when word came that the war had broken out. It reached Apia, Samoa, and interned. Schmidt saw his dream of reaching Austria shattered.

For two years he lived on the ship in Samoa and as long as the captain's money lasted he was paid. But now he is in San Francisco to sue Robert Capelle, local representative of the Alsace's owners, for $380 back pay. He says if he wins he intends to stay right here in the United States.

DEATH STORY SOLVES STEAMER'S VANISHING

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—A story of shipwrecked sailors dying of starvation on Jarvis Island, a barren coral reef in the South Seas, may come to bring a solution of the mystery of the disappearance of the overdue steamer Wairuna.

Captain John Foster of the steamer Waimarino reported today that he sighted on the beach of Jarvis Island the wreckage of what he is convinced was a Pacific coast lumber schooner. He cruised for a day in the vicinity but found no sign of life.

RETURN OF I. W. W. TO BISBEE BEING URGED

PHOENIX, Ariz., Aug. 3.—That Frank H. Moore, Los Angeles attorney reported from Bisbee when he went there on a legal errand for the I. W. W., urged Governor Thomas Campbell to appeal to President Wilson in behalf of the return to Bisbee of the deported I. W. W.'s now in New Mexico, was intimated at the executive's office here today. The governor announced, following a conference with Moore, that Moore had asked a request he could not grant. A second conference will be held today.

'DECIDED NOT TO GO INTO NATIONAL ARMY'

BANGOR, Me., Aug. 3.—The examining board of this draft district received the following letter from a man notified to appear:

AT STATE'S FAIR TO USE EXHIBITS OF SCHOOL WORK

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 30.—With the California State Fair this year actively enlisted in the government's service as a Food Training Camp, the vocational department of the fair has taken on enhanced importance and this year promises to far outstrip in interest and educational value similar features of any of the sixty-two previous fairs.

Vice-President E. Franklin of the State Board of Agriculture, who has charge of the vocational department, is making strenuous effort to secure exhibits from representative schools of every section of the state and calculates on filling every inch of the greatly enlarged space available this year with specimens of the school children's work. So far as possible, Food Conservation will be the dominant note, it being felt that children, as well as grown ups, must do their bit for their country and that their help in producing more food and wasting less can be made an appreciable factor in solution of the food problem which confronts the nation. The vocational department's exhibit is counted upon to do much toward stimulating interest in children's work along this line.

From primary school to high school and University State Farm, the students will have opportunity at this year's fair of competing in every branch of food production, including home gardening, dairying, cattle, sheep, poultry and swine raising. The prizes range from diplomas and medals to valuable cash and merchandise awards and scholarships at the University Farm.

Girls will have their share of attention in the food conservation movement through contests in bread-making, canning and other branches of cookery. Special prizes will be awarded to contestants demonstrating new or improved methods of utilizing the cheaper food staples, also prizes for best and most comprehensive menus which can be prepared at trifling cost.

Although the food problem, because of the nation's war needs, will occupy first place, manual training, fine and domestic arts, engineering, etc., as at past fairs, also will be featured. As planned by the fair managers, visitors at the fair, walking through the space occupied by this class of exhibits, will gain almost complete visualization of the strides of civilization in a hundred different lines. From the first crude efforts of tiny children to fashion things out of paper or wood up to the last word in modern science as exemplified by wireless telegraphy and automobile construction, all will be shown and all will be the work of children not yet out of their teens.

FOR A SQUARE DEAL

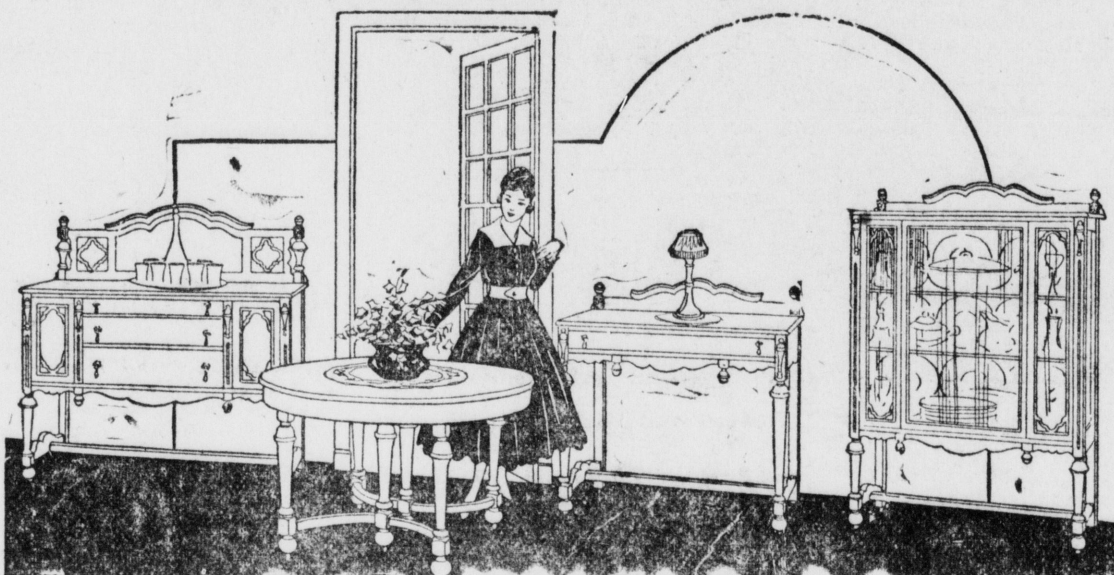

As circumscribed in the exercise of their inalienable rights as are the people of Luxembourg under the heel of Prussianism, the Greeks wait the end of the war for their rights as one of the small nations for whose liberties America fights. Mr. Lansing's courageous declaration that "the United States will undoubtedly have opinions to express at the end of the war" is their hope, the charter of their freedom.

FOR OUTFITTERS OF NEW HOMES

AFTER ALL—what is it you most appreciate and plan for in the Home you are about to establish or refurnish? Is it simplicity or refined elegance? Shall it be a home of the modern type, and that exclusively, or shall it combine both modern with the good, old-fashioned atmosphere of hospitality, quiet richness, and honest-to-goodness comfort?

These are questions which you alone must answer. You have your own ideas regarding the type and character of Home you want yours to be. We are interested in these ideas; interested because our store specializes in the making of Homes. Our suggestions will probably solve the problems which confront everybody who starts out to furnish and establish a Home; they are tremendously practical. They are worth while and exceedingly economical.

Our idea of devoting this store to the featuring of Home Outfits is to emphasize the far-reaching value and service of this store as a Home-Outfitting Center. All displays are suggestive. They are practical and helpful.

Whether it is your desire to touch-off the Dining Room of your home with a style of William & Mary,—or whether your ideas of simplicity lean towards the good, old-fashioned Colonial type—you'll find us splendidly prepared to satisfy your demands in every way.

HIS MIND AFAR LIFE CRUSHED OUT BETWEEN TWO WAGONS

Lawrence Thompson Killed
While at Work on Golder
Ranch Near Wintersburg

With his mind evidently far from his work and in spite of warning cries, Lawrence Thompson, aged 28, stood still while a beet wagon backed against him, and crushed the life out of him.

The accident occurred yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock on Ed Golder's ranch near Westminster. Thompson has been in this country from Germany, where he was born and where his relatives live, for six years. Recently he has been employed on Golder's ranch as a teamster and swamp-er.

Golder has been hauling his beets to the dump with a tractor. Several wagons have been chained together, after they had been collected in the fields by teams, and the train has been taken away by the tractor. James Huffman, a teamster, was bringing up a load of beets, and was backing it up to the front of the last wagon that had been attached to a train yesterday about 4 o'clock. It was Thompson's business to fasten the two wagons together after Huffman had backed into position.

Thompson stood just in front of the wagon train when Huffman began to back. Golder was standing near. He noticed that Thompson seemed to be abstracted, oblivious to the fact that the beet wagon was moving toward him.

Golder called to Thompson to look out. Thompson did not move. Golder yelled a second time, but Thompson did not move. Just that second Huffman's wagon struck him, and he was crushed against the front of the other wagon. The man's skull and head were crushed, and death was instantaneous.

To the coroner, the circumstances were explained fully, and exoneration followed for Huffman and Golder.

Those who had been working with

Thompson said that he had been acting peculiar and unusual all day. Often his mind seemed to be far away. At the beet dump it was his business to bring up another wagon when one had been dumped. On two or three occasions he did not respond to the signal. He merely sat or stood still and apparently had to be aroused.

Thompson is said to have had some difficulty over some property that he owned in Texas, and it is known that he was worrying over the matter. He was among those drawn for early examination in Exemption District No. 2, and had no exemption claims to make. However, he was not likely to be drafted into the army, for he was still a citizen of Germany, although he had taken out his first papers of naturalization. He had expressed no worry over the situation between the United States and Germany, in which country all of his relatives live.

HOW TO TELL RANK OF U. S. NAVY OFFICER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—You can recognize the rank of an American naval officer by knowing that:

A naval ensign has one gold bar on his epaulet.

A junior lieutenant has one and one-half of a gold bar thereon.

A senior lieutenant has two gold bars thereon.

A lieutenant commander has two and one-half gold bars.

A captain has three gold bars.

A rear admiral has a star, a narrow and a broad gold band. A vice admiral has a star, two narrow and a broad gold band.

An admiral of the navy has three narrow and a broad gold band, preceded by a star, as in the case of a rear and a vice admiral.

PICKFORD SISTERS IN PERIL FROM HAT PIN

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3.—Attacked by a maid who lunged at them with a hat pin, following her notice of dismissal, Mary and Lottie Pickford, famous sisters of the "movie" world, and their mother were saved from probable injury when their screams brought a chauffeur to the rescue. The girl, Katherine Ripkine, was overpowered and carried bodily out of the Pickford bungalow.

A chance remark by Lottie Pickford about an incorrigible girl, not directed against the maid, precipitated the attack nevertheless. The girl was arrested and placed under $500 bail. As she was taken away Mary Pickford made her a present of $5 besides her wages.

GIVES 'CLOSE-UP' OF BRITAIN'S BOY HEROES OF THE AIR

Dare Devils With England's Flying Corps Just Plain
Healthy Youngsters

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN THE FIELD, July 3 (by mail).—"The air game is a young man's game." Axiom of every European army.

Today I stood on a British aerodrome just behind the lines watching the practice flights of the youngsters stationed there when a speck in the eastern sky caused someone to remark:

"Here comes a bird! It's Pat. Watch him."

I watched. At 120 miles an hour the speck came at us. Suddenly, at a height of about a mile the machine slowly turned over sideways, then plunged earthward upside-down.

"He's done himself in!" someone exclaimed.

It certainly looked so. Pat's machine, the engine stopped, was plunging earthward, perpendicularly, spinning round and round on its own axis. Then, suddenly it straightened out flat, went a hundred yards and shot up into the air, again perpendicularly. Slowly, gracefully the aeroplane turned over on its back, again upside down, looped the loop twice, flew on straight, rolled over and over, plunged sideways, went into another nosedive first with a right hand spin then a left hand one, and so on until he had everyone gasping for breath.

Just Mere Boy

Finally the machine came down and lit on the field. Out of the pilot's seat climbed a hooded, goggled being which with one quick jerk took hood and goggles from head and face and behold: A kid, a boy, a stripling just turned twenty.

It was Pat, star pilot, Boche-killer, blushing and smiling like a sweet girl graduate. He wasn't swanking, nor swaggering, but behaving exactly like any kid home from school after algebra and football. For that is just the way he looked—like a kid who has done a little mathematics and considerable football—hair tumbled, face red and glowing, eyes sparkling.

Nobody asked him if there had been anything doing over the line, not any more than one brother asks another that question when they meet at home after office hours. But, as you shall see, it had been what you or I would call a rather busy day. However I did not find that out until later—the next day, in fact, when I read the air reports.

Singing

An hour after Pat came down I saw him again. This time he was washed and dressed and had on his slacks—which is English army stuff for trousers—instead of breeches and leggings. He was in the R. F. C. reading room, a room in a shack and next door to the dining room. He and another kid—a major if you please—in an air pilot's uniform were singing:

"Hallelujah! I'm a bum!
Hallelujah! Bum again!
Hallelujah! Give us a handout
To save us from sin."

This verse was sung in a deep bass, to the well-known revivalist tune, then as the next lines were reached, the bass changed into the high falsetto of the farmer's wife as she stands on the back porch:

"Oh, why don't you work
As other men do?"

And then the bass again, imitating the bum:

"How the hell can I work
When there's no work to do?"

Nothing Devilish

There was nothing evil, nothing scelerious about it. Nothing more devilish than healthy boys, with bright, clean minds. These were just kids having fun.

Outside on a court leveled and laid out in what was recently a cornfield, four more kids were playing tennis across a net made of wire originally intended to keep trenches from caving in. Near this was another court, a badminton one, and here, four more beardless Boche-killers were racketing feathered globules about like mad. All day they had been fighting in the air miles above the earth, waylaid, stalking, Prussian airmen in the clouds—these schoolkids—and now they were having a bit of relaxation before dinner. More kids were grouped about a tent on the edge of the badminton court and a hilarious contest was going on seeing who could climb over the roof of the tent in quickest time. The winner was the padre, the airman's chaplain—bully good man that he is—who came sliding down the nearside of the steep tent-roof crying as he came:

"Here comes a perfectly good parson!"

Kids Laugh

And the kids about him laughed like kids will at a Punch and Judy show, over the antics of their padre who influences them like a real father.

The next day I read the air reports. I found that all these kids had been in a big fight that very day. Thirty-nine of them had fought over 50 German airmen and had beaten them. They had sent seven enemy machines crashing through the clouds to the ground, bombed two railway stations, given the range for any number of direct hits on Prussian artillery, dived at, and silenced a number of aircraft guns which were hampering them in their work.

And Pat?

Pat had attacked four German batross machines singlehanded, and scattered them, all save one which he riddled with his bullets and flung head over heels three miles to the earth where it smashed and blazed and glowed until it was cinders, its pilot and observing officer perishing in the crash.

And then, Pat, attacked in his turn by ten enemy machines as he flew alone three miles above the ground, escaped by a "nose spin" a literal drop out of the blue such as I had seen him do that afternoon over the aerodrome.

Two Thoughts

When I read these reports two thoughts chased themselves round and round in my head. One was:

"The air game is a young man's game."

And the other was in the guise of a haunting tune:

"Hallelujah! I'm a bum!
Hallelujah! Bum again!
Hallelujah! Give us a handout
To save us from sin."

The laughter of Pat, the boy Boche-killer, as he came back in deep, bluesque tones imitating the bum's reply to the farmer's wife, was part of the music:

"How the hell can I work
When there's no work to do?"

ALCOHOL MANUFACTURE FROM YUCCA IS URGED

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 3.—That millions of dollars worth of potential fuel alcohol is going to waste in the yucca groves of California every year is the startling declaration of John Kuebler of Phelan, Cal. Kuebler is engaged in cutting yucca for the manufacture of artificial limbs and other purposes to which the wood is well adapted.

Kuebler says in each plant there is much waste and chemists declare that the yucca yields alcohol, when properly distilled, in large quantities.

"There is enough fuel alcohol out there to make gasoline so cheap we could buy it for six cents," Kuebler declared.

INSIDE FACTS ON TEUTON PLANS WILL BE TOLD BY GERARD

Former Ambassador to Germany Prepares Story of Experiences in Berlin

BOSTON, Aug. 3.—The old maxim that truth is stranger than fiction has been demonstrated by the forecast of the coming revelations to be made by James Watson Gerard, until recently an ambassador at Berlin. For years a favorite form of sensational fiction, not only in the United States, but in Europe, has been the "romance of diplomacy," in which spies, detectives, diplomats and royalties whirl in a sort of battle royal.

All these are fiction, but Gerard's story is fact—a careful, relentless story, told, chapter by chapter, by a man who is a master lawyer and judge, and fiction is turning out to be wilder than the wildest fiction.

The whirl of the Berlin court, with circle after circle of plotters—Prussians who planned the bloody conquest of the world, manufacturers who planned its economic conquest, financiers who wanted to measure all values by "marks," princes who wanted promotion to new thrones, soldiers and sailors of different branches of service each planning and plotting to get the center of the stage in the forthcoming war—make a picture which will be burned into the consciences of the world.

Gerard's book, competent judges of literature predict, will live long after the war is over, and will make fiction stories tame in comparison.

The only way Europe will get this picture of itself, by the way, is the same way the American public is to get it, through installments in daily newspapers of wide circulation. Not a word or chapter of the book is allowed to escape. Ambassador Gerard resigned from the diplomatic service that his lips might be unsealed, it has been very carefully gone over by the State Department, and as it is issued, chapter by chapter, it is predicted that it will prove a more formidable public document than all the "green books" and "blue books" and "red books" which the warring European nations have issued to justify their positions.

This story will run in the Los Angeles "Examiner" beginning August 5.

REMAINS OF EXTINCT ANIMALS ARE FOUND

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Berkeley, Cal., Aug. 2.—The discovery of remains of extinct camels, horses, deer and ground sloths in the White Bluffs along the Columbia river in Southern Washington, has enabled Prof. J. C. Merriam and L. P. Bunwells of the University of California to add a chapter to the river's biography.

These bluffs have been regarded by most geologists as of the same period as the Eocene formation, which is Miocene. The professors, however, found fossil remains of animals much farther along in the course of evolution than similar animals found in the Eocene formation. The professors have given the formation of the White Bluffs the name of "Ringold formation" and the university will undertake further exploration in that section.

Your Family's Safety Demands Tight Wheels

When you take the "folks" out for a spin you are responsible for their safety—you and your car. Every part must be in perfect condition. A single loose wheel may cause a serious accident by collapsing at a dangerous place.

SPOKITE

Swells Wood Is Not A Glue

Tightens Loose Wheels

A small quantity of Spokite squirted into the cracks caused by the shrinkage of the wood will tighten your wheels like new. It will swell the wood to its original tightness—and keep it there. It will stop the creaking, the rattling and the danger of collapse.

Better, Cheaper, Quicker Than Old Way

The old or mechanical way is to reduce the rim to fit the shrunken wheel. But this does not allow for expansion of the wood in wet weather. And it not only costs as high as $2.50 per wheel but also keeps your vehicle idle for a half day or longer and prevents the perfect fit of the tire.

Spokite will tighten your wheels at an average cost of 25c each. It swells the shrunken wood to fit the steel rim and keeps the wheel from shrinking again or from swelling in damp weather. And the whole job of tightening four wheels can be done by anyone in an hour.

Easy to Apply—Not a Glue

Thousands of owners of automobiles and other vehicles are using it to tighten their wheels. And not one case of failure has yet been found. Instead, we have letters from many telling us how well pleased they are with the results and savings.

How One Dollar Did the Work of Ten or More

Mr. A. L. Halverson, hauling contractor of Modesto, California, tells how Spokite saved him money: "The wheels on my were in very bad shape. I either had to take them to the blacksmith shop and have them reset, costing $2.50 apiece, or buy new ones. One application of Spokite fixed them as good as new."

Obey the Call of Ocean and Mountains Come to Laguna Beach

Flowers, trees, mountains are to life what religion is to the soul.

A soul may do without religion; but what a soul!

A life may do without flowers, trees or mountains; but what a life!

All over this planet of ours the Almighty has graciously scattered beauty spots. In Southern California His grace been especially abundant in this particular.

Yet, like human faces, no two bits of scenic beauty are just alike. Also, like human faces, there is a difference—in opinion—as to what constitutes beauty in nature. One man will gaze upon the face of a woman or upon the ruggedness of a cliff and feast upon its loveliness, while his comrade will answer with a laugh!—"Quite ordinary; I see nothing to enthuse over."

On the Way to Laguna

You have no sooner left Santa Ana and passed Tustin when scenic charm begins to unfold itself. The glass boulevard over which you pass is lined on both sides with as fine orange, lemon and walnut orchards as the southland boasts.

It is just ten miles to the Irvine Station on the Santa Fe, at which point begins the road of quaint beauty. At each turn—and it is nearly all turns—a picturesque surprise greets you, which becomes more entrancing as you traverse the thick of the canyon.

The wide gentle-sloping terraced acres of Irvine and the spiritual lakes—mirages—have already prepared your sense of expectation.

Entering Laguna

As you enter the canyon some distance beyond, rocky caverns, caves and crags become more numerous. Ideal nooks for ancient cliff dwellers, you feel they are, or might have been. Through openings in the road you get occasional glimpses of the short valleys where vegetation is luxuriant because the rich silt, washed down from the hills, could not escape to other places.

You are in the very midst of this delight when the slowing of the auto indicates you have come to the city limits of Laguna. Disappointment crosses your contented state at the thought of city activity, which you feel must follow soon.

Some distance is traversed in which nothing but a few houses, hidden in the canyon and foliage, are passed.

Laguna

Another turn brings you to the business section. The rustic looking little shops are in complete harmony with the scheme of nature's architecture set all about them.

So quaint is the "downtown" section of Laguna one almost regrets the tinge of commercialism here and there, such as cement sidewalks and the like.

STORM DISTRICT BALLOT DELAY IS ASKED

ANAHEIM, Aug. 3.—Resolutions asking the river protection committee to defer further action towards calling an election for the Yorba Protection District until there is more harmony relative to the question in other districts were adopted by the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association of Anaheim.

PLACENTIA, Aug. 3.—The action of the supervisors in forming the Anaheim-Yorba Storm Water District has stirred up a full-sized protest, or contest—or both. While the proponents of the district contend that protection is necessary and can be had under the plans proposed, and at a cost of $50,000, the opposition contends that this amount will not be enough to get the work nicely started.

The principal objection, however, is that the district is too small, only about 12,000 acres being included, with five miles of river bank to be protected.

A meeting of protestants will be held at the Commonwealth school in the Golden State tract, next Wednesday evening. Several Placentia people own property in the district, and are expected to be present.

HOW TO TELL RANK OF U. S. ARMY OFFICER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—You can tell the rank of an American army officer by knowing that:

A second lieutenant has an epaulette with no bar.

A first lieutenant has an epaulette with one white bar.

A captain has an epaulette with two white bars.

A major has an epaulette with a gold maple leaf thereon.

A lieutenant colonel has an epaulette with a silver maple leaf.

A colonel has an epaulette with a silver spread eagle thereon.

A brigadier general has an epaulette with one silver star.

A major general has an epaulette with two silver stars.

A lieutenant general has an epaulette with three silver stars.

A general is exceedingly rare. Thus far in our history there have been only two. They were Washington and Grant.

AGENTS ARE NAMED FOR FARMS SALES

The California Farms Company, a corporation which is subdividing and selling a 10,000-acre tract known as the Capay Rancho, located in the Sacramento Valley, has started an advertising campaign in Orange county. The company's Orange county representatives are S. B. Edwards of Orange and T. B. Talbert of Huntington Beach. Later there will be a Santa Ana selling agency.

It is stated by the company that sales at Capay Rancho passed the $300,000 mark in 150 days since the first farm was sold. This news was received by the Orange county representatives of the California Farms Company.

The company is now selling subdivision No. 2 and the delightful ranch house with its many sleeping porches, its spacious lawns and beautiful English oaks is a busy scene with crowds that are weekly arriving from various parts of the state to inspect the farms. Scarcely a stone's throw distant, the Sacramento river provides recreation in splendid bathing and good fishing.

Much romance is connected with this large property. The Capay Rancho is the heart of the famous old Capay grant of thousands of acres of rich bench land bordering the Sacramento river for miles. The deaths of the late Francis Cutting and the late A. D. Cutler, men of big interests on the Pacific Coast, for many years owners of this famous old Rancho, have brought these rich farm lands within reach of the little farmer. All but the home ranch has been sold off and the old grain grant property is now considered one of the most prosperous dairy, alfalfa and fruit districts in California. Three Cities have grown to thriving communities and surround the home property with their suburbs, today a belt of busy farms and orchards.

AERO PLANT STRIKE CALL SOURCE MYSTERY

BERKELEY, Cal., Aug. 3.—Who called the strike Tuesday at the Hall-Scott aeroplane motor factory here was the question officials of the company sought to solve today. The strikers say they received orders from somebody to quit, but from whom is an unanswered question.

Recently a "strike" at the Union Iron Works at Alameda was found to have been called without authorization, under the same mysterious circumstances.

PEACE MEETING TO BE HELD TONIGHT

A meeting under the auspices of the People's Council of America will be held at Chune's theater tonight, beginning at 8 o'clock. Among the speakers scheduled to address the meeting are Former Senator John D. Works; Prof. Paul Jordan Smith of Claremont; Rev. Francis Watry of Long Beach, formerly of Santa Ana, and T. W. Williams of Los Angeles. An announcement of the meeting says that "the purposes of the People's Council, so far as they can be determined in advance of its own deliberations, are to secure an early, democratic and general peace in harmony with the principles outlined by the women and men all over the world who want democracy and peace; to urge international organization for the maintenance of world peace; no forcible annexations; no punitive indemnities; and free development for all nationalities."

GARDEN GROVE

OPEN MEETINGS OF RED CROSS ARE PLANNED

GARDEN GROVE, Aug. 3.—The Red Cross will hold an open meeting at Y. M. C. A. hall on the last Friday of each month, to which the public will be cordially welcomed. Reports of the activities of the various committees during the previous month will be submitted, ways and means for furthering the best interests of the auxiliary will be discussed and suggestions from any one present, whether a member or not, will be entertained by the local chairman, Mrs. C. C. Violet.

The foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church, Mrs. G. R. Reyburn, president, met in regular monthly session Wednesday afternoon on the beautiful lawn at the home of Mrs. J. O. Arkey. Mrs. O. W. Reinus led in devotional exercises. Following the usual business routine "a demonstration of a village in India" was given by Mrs. G. R. Reyburn, representing Sahiba, a lady missionary. Mrs. Clarence Crosby, as Jumiya; Mrs. Nelson Cook, as Chandaniya; Mrs. O. O. Young, as Soniya, and Mrs. O. W.

Reinius as Jumiya, the unseen. Each was construed as an Oriental. The dialogue was very entertaining with its unique setting, a magnificent pepper tree representing "under the tamarind tree." The author, Emma Moore Scott, depicts the eagerness with which the Hindu women hear the message of the missionary and the urgent need of the work.

Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Reinus rendered a duet.
The next meeting, the first Wednesday in September, will be at the home of Mrs. John Steele. It is the regular mite box opening and an out-of-town speaker will address the meeting on missionary work. Mrs. S. S. Jackson and Mrs. Nelson Cook were appointed refreshment committee. After delicious refreshments, the meeting adjourned.

About thirty friends greeted Rev. William Thomas and daughter, Miss Effie, at the home of Mrs. George Tyler, Friday evening. A most enjoyable impromptu Bible drill was given. Refreshments were served and all left with happy memories of a pleasant evening with their beloved former minister.

Queen Esther Circle met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. S. Horowitz and spent the time sewing on comfort bags for the Red Cross box.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Free Methodist Church met in regular monthly session at the parsonage Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. The subject was Africa. Mrs. S. W. Stone gave a very interesting talk on "How much Christianity means to the African woman and with what eagerness they embrace the faith when they are made to understand how it will lift them from degradation. The Woman's Council of Defense was discussed. Meeting adjourned to meet the first Wednesday in September.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Earl Butler and the time was spent sewing on bath robes for the Red Cross. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William Morrell.

Tuesday evening the members of the Epworth League went en masse to the home of J. E. Brown to surprise Virgil Brown and Wayne Holt, who have answered their country's call as volunteers to do their duty in the present great crisis. About forty guests were present and enjoyed games indoors and on the lawn, the latter being lighted with Japanese lanterns. Rev. and Mrs. Reinius came over from Huntington Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winters and Mr. and Mrs. Monte Preston from Los Angeles to be present.

They had arranged to meet at California Redwood Park, 28 miles south of San Jose, where some of the grades are 26 per cent. Mr. and Mrs. Mills were disappointed on their arrival at the park at not finding the rest of the party but enjoyed the scenic beauty of the park and when the journey was resumed met them at the Salinas river and completed the journey together. They traveled a distance of 1700 miles, meeting with no serious difficulties or accidents en route and in good health, having enjoyed every moment of the time spent on the trip.

If so, carry out your promises by making Newport Beach your summer resort this season.

Lew H. Wallace

If one were to travel many miles and search the entire coast range from Lower California to upper Oregon, no more beautiful, enchanting bit of ocean-kissed shore-line, cavernous or gentle sloping, could be found than that immediately surrounding Newport Bay.

The locality, extending from West Newport to Balboa Palisades, formerly Corona del Mar—Crown of the Sea—legally known as the City of Newport Beach. The view of the Bay and Rocky Point from the rising bluff of the Palisades is not surpassed in all California.

Rocky Coast Line, near Mouth Newport Harbor

Northward are the slopes and rounding outlines of the gentle foothills; gradually they become more massive until seen to be but the feet of the high and majestic snow-crowned Sierras in the far distance. To the westward is the soft-hued—or brilliant white-capped (as the case may be)—ocean. Southward are entrancing Laguna and Arch Beaches with San Juan Point a faint, gray outline beyond.

Just before us to the eastward are the still waters of Newport Bay, and, further inland, the rich agricultural section of Newport Heights.

The Founding of Newport
A little more than a half century ago the ocean held undisputed sway over the peninsula upon which the township of West Newport, Newport, East Newport and Balboa now stand. The high bluffs of the then San Joaquin Rancho were the only marks of the shore line. There was in 1847 no harbor—no Newport Bay. But with the rainstorms of '48 and '49 in the San Bernardino came a change. The volume of storm water overswelled the Santa Ana River and the swift currents were forced to find a new outlet in their rush to the sea. The Santa Ana left its old outlet at Alamitos Bay and formed a new one at Newport. This has since been called "An act of God," for year by year, the new river's outlet grew until it formed Newport Bay and made beautiful Balboa Island possible.

SPORTS

By H. C. Hamilton

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Sherwood Magee, ex-star and friend of the Phillies, is today a member of the Phillies because he may be able to fill the place of some drafted youngster. George Stallings is giving him a taste of the medicine that was handed American leaguers by Connie Mack. No one is to be spared in the wide sweep of his axe. Magee almost missed a contract last winter. The salary in his document was slashed, and for a time he held tight to a pronouncement that the original amount must be left. He finally capitulated just in time to save himself from release.

Magee hasn't been a wonder for the Braves. He has lost much of his speed and his batting hasn't been at the old mark. Younger blood promises to give him a trip to the minors.

The same blade that promises to nip Magee is seriously threatening Ed Konetchy, reports say. The former Cardinal star, like Magee, has been unable to get started, since he left St. Louis in the trade that switched him the Cardinal and Pirate teams. Konetchy's sojourn among the Federals was a success, but he has been unable to strike his old gait for the Braves.

Stallings is said to be scouring the bushes for a first sacker to replace Koney.

In the same tenor it is being pointed out nearly everywhere that the strength John Evers was expected to add to the Phillies has failed to develop.

Evers, after a seige of sickness, reported to the Phillies, sincerely believing himself in condition to play. His fielding has been splendid, but he hasn't had the fire and pepper of other days.

The Boston National League world's champion club lasted briefly. A complete rebuilding, the second in the club's history since Stallings came in to the management, now is in progress.

Reports are persistent that Toronto is going to be a major league city next year. Efforts to move the Washington club still are in progress, though decidedly under cover.

ADVENTISTS MEETING IN L. A. IS LAUNCHED

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3.—Housed in a canvas city of 200 tents centering around an auditorium tent seating 3000 people, the annual camp meeting of Southern California Seventh Day Adventists now is in session here. It will close August 12.

The scene is much different, however, from the old time camp meetings of fifty years ago. In those days everyone camped in the fullest meaning of the term—cooking over a camp fire and all of that.

But at this camp meeting there is a cafeteria with its modern hotel ranges and steam tables; an up-to-date grocery store on the grounds and a book store is well patronized.

GRADUATE CLASS OF BOMBERS IN FRENCH ARMY ROUTS FOE

Henry Wood Tells of German Attack and Its Disastrous Results

BY HENRY WOOD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES IN CHAMPAGNE, July 15 (by mail).—This is the sorry story of a German battalion that made the regrettable error on June 21 of attacking a graduating class of the French grenade school just at the moment when the graduates were all lined up for their final graduating exercises.

When the French grenade graduates had succeeded in imposing tranquility on the part of the Germans until their graduating exercises could be completed, 200 German dead could be counted on the field of operations whilst the French lines on a 600 meter front had been advanced 300 meters. The graduates had three killed and seventeen wounded for their total losses.

The custom of the French to hold graduating exercises in their front line trenches has arisen from the necessity of changing their whole system of infantry tactics as a result of the exigencies of the present war.

Schooling
Instruction camps were established back from the front lines, and as fast as possible troops were withdrawn from the fighting ranks and given a

ANNOYING SYMPTOMS

How Heat Flashes, Dizzy Spells and other Bad Feelings at Change of Life may be Relieved.

Richmond, Va.—"After taking seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new woman. I always had a headache during the Change of Life and was also troubled with other bad feelings common at that time—dizzy spells, nervous feelings and heat flashes. Now I am in better health than I ever was and recommend your remedies to all my friends."—Mrs. LENA WYNN, 2312 E. O Street, Richmond, Va.

While Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, the annoying symptoms which accompany it may be controlled, and normal health restored by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such warning symptoms are a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness.

month or two of schooling. From an old-time infantryman who knew nothing but the use of the rifle and bayonet, the men come out of these schools highly developed specialists either as hand or rifle grenade throwers; portable machine-gun experts; baby cannon sharpshooters or bayonet sharks.

When a class has completed its full course of instruction at one of these schools, it is taken to the front line trenches and for its final graduating exercises makes an attack on the Germans—usually for the purpose of capturing a trench, observatory or some small fortified position.

It was one of these graduating classes that was in the act of undergoing its final graduating exercises that the Germans accidentally attacked. The class consisted of grenade throwers, portable machine-gun marksmen together with a few rifle grenadiers, baby cannon sharpshooters and bayonet experts. In all the class numbered less than 100.

Take Up Positions
They had just taken up their positions in the front line trenches on the northeastern slope of Mount Cornillet where their final graduating exercises were to be performed. The Germans still held one observatory on this side of the ridge and the graduates were to demonstrate their fitness to pass from the school period of new infantry tactics into that of actual war, by storming and capturing the observatory.

The last preparations for the assault were being made when just a half hour before the attack was scheduled, the Germans suddenly launched an attack of their own against the trench being held by the grenade graduates. It is doubtful if a bigger piece of "pie" was ever offered to France's new infantry specialists.

Loaded to Teeth
Loaded to the teeth as they were with grenades and munitions for their own attack, they merely laid back in their trench until the German assaulting column was within stone's throw and then opened up with all the perfected weapons of modern infantry tactics. In less than two minutes there was not a German left standing. Although it was still all of fifteen minutes before the grenade graduates were scheduled to launch their own graduating attack, the moment was too propitious, and they went over the French rampart, across the dead bodies of the assaulting troops and captured the last remaining German observatory on Mount Cornillet in precisely the manner they had been taught to do it at the school of new infantry tactics.

Only four prisoners were taken by the graduates—and all four of these wounded—but when the attack was finished there were over 200 German dead on the ground to be buried.

Honored with Medal
At least one of the grenade graduates had the Medaille Militaire conferred on him on the field of battle whilst several others received citations for the Croix de Guerre afterwards. All in all, it was about the most successful graduating exercises that any class in the new infantry tactics has yet enjoyed.

It is in these new infantry tactics that the American troops are to be drilled upon their arrival in France. Well trained American troops from the regular army and militia, are expected to master one of these specialties.

ITALIANS NEAR POWER CLIMAX IN GIGANTIC WORLD WAR

Latins' Achievements During Twelve Months Told By United Press Man

BY JOHN H. HEARLEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

ROME, Aug. 2.—Italy is just now approaching the climax of her power in the great war. Twelve months have witnessed consolidation of the Italian war machine, brilliant advances on all fronts where Italian soldiers face the most determined and best equipped of the enemy's power in the Mediterranean.

For the first time in months the muddled Italian political situation has apparently settled down, with the recent overwhelming vote of confidence in the Boselli cabinet. Italy has learned, probably from England, the necessity of co-ordinated, harmonious prosecution of the war, with every ounce of her strength.

Most recent of Italy's achievements were the two offensives in the Carso and the Trentino. Gorizia fell just a year ago and then Italy turned her eyes toward Laibach and Trieste. But winter gripped the fighters before plans materialized. Just before nature intervened to stop the fighting the Italians (in September) conquered the heights of Cosmagno in the Adige valley, and consolidated and widened their positions on the Pasubio.

Powerful Drive
This spring on May 9, General Cadorna began where he had left off last fall—but this time with more powerful offensive arms—in men, guns and munitions. The whole left bank of the river and almost the entire rocky plateau north of Gorizia fell to their arms. Jamiano they pressed forward. The lower slopes of Mount Hermada, the guardian of Trieste, were conquered. Trieste itself is now directly menaced from a bare twelve miles.

British guns, fired by Canadians, aided the Italians in this great offensive and allied warships in the Gulf of Trieste bombarded the Austrian coast positions.

In Trentino, a successful offensive also gained ground for Cadorna's warriors. Official estimates now place the number of Austrian prisoners held in Italy at 155,000—and of these at least 35,000 were taken in the spring offensives.

Abandons Tripolitania
But while Italy has been advancing into Austria, she has been compelled gradually to abandon the interland of Tripolitania. Hostile Arab tribes in the interior, backed with German-Turkish money forced the retirement of the Italians to a thin line along the coast.

In Albania the Savoyan army now occupies a strip of territory between the Adriatic and the river Vojussa to the northwest. Fallona, facing Brindisi, is the principal Italian stronghold.

Italy's navy has netted or sunk in the year just past at least forty Austrian and German submarines. British "drifters" have given valuable aid in this work. The Italian navy is just now co-operating effectively with British, Japanese and French squadrons in the Mediterranean to sweep the seas clear of enemy submarines. King Victor's sailors have given good account of themselves in the one important naval engagement of the year for Italy—that off Cattaro—although they lost heavily.

Downs 75 Foe Aeroplanes
The Italian flying corps, it is estimated, has dropped seventy-five enemy flyers in the year. It has carried out frequent raids over Austrian ports, including Trieste.

These achievements have cost Italy approximately $43,845,200,000 in a year. Nearly $4,000,000,000 of this was spent on the army and $166,000,000 on the navy. The present monthly cost of the war is close to $225,000,000. America's financial aid has been of great service in helping Italy to meet this tremendous strain.

The German submarine campaign has resulted in sky-rocketing living prices in Italy and in considerable discomfort. The situation, however, is far from serious. The cost of living is now up nearly 64 per cent from before the war. Coal is almost prohibitive. That for ships, at seaboard is around $90 a ton. American shoes, formerly $8 and $10, cost more than $15 now. Sugar, butter and flour are rarities. Meat is scarce. But the Italian people do not appear to be suffering in the least from their deprivations.

Admittedly like voices crying in the wilderness, the Vatican organs persist in their editorial campaigns for a speedy and just peace. Directly and through his Nuncios it is reported Pope Benedict has ceaselessly worked for a termination of hostilities.

TRUSTEES FIND QUANDARY IN SCHOOL LAW

FULLERTON, Aug. 3.—The local grammar school board is up a stump. The confusion has arisen largely over the discovery of the new school law providing that cities of the sixth class can contain only one school district.

Within the boundaries of this city lies part of the Orangethorpe school district and part of the Placentia school district. The problem has been threshed out in part.

The boards of trustees of the three school districts sought to arbitrate the tangle before the board of supervisors and Superintendent of Schools Mitchell. The sum and substance of the conference was this: Orangethorpe is unwilling to lose the part of its school district lying in the city limits of Fullerton. The Fullerton trustees offered what they considered a fair counter proposal and the Orangethorpe board rejected it. The local board then signified its intention of standing pat and taking all that was coming under the law.

Seeks Legal Advice
The Orangethorpe board after the meeting, sought the advice of attorneys, with a view, it was said of seeking to block the operation of the law.

While it is pretty certain, according to the belief of one member of the local board, that the Orangethorpe trustees will not be able to stop the new law, there is nevertheless some doubt as to what the ultimate outcome will be and in consequence the local board is to a certain extent, up in the air.

The uncertainty of the local board is in not knowing what the increase in the school attendance from the new source will be this year and consequently not knowing what financial provisions to make.

Special Tax
Under a special tax, the school can get twenty-three cents on every $100. With the assessed valuation of Fullerton approximately eight millions, this would give the school a limit of $1,840,000. Last year the school drew $6000 special tax and finished the year on the right side of the ledger. Whatever money is called for under the special tax will, of course, raise the school tax.

Unfortunately this district will draw money for this year on a basis of the attendance last year and if portions of the Orangethorpe and Placentia school districts are absorbed, the only course the local board has to provide for the increase in the attendance that will follow is to draw on the special tax.

How the change will affect the local schools will depend upon the grades that pupils from the new territory, enter according to Albert Sitton, a member of the local board who Thursday outlined the situation that is confronting the board.

Sitton Talks
"If the attendance is increased by only twenty-five pupils, another teacher will have to be added to the faculty," said Trustee Sitton. "The primary department is crowded to capacity now; one teacher is in charge of a mixed class of seventh and eighth-grade pupils and should a large part of the twenty-five pupils be enrolled in these grades, it will be necessary to employ two additional teachers instead of one. If, however, the pupils are scattered through the lower grades, only one extra teacher will be needed."

Before making up a budget, the school board is waiting to find out as nearly as possible, how the attendance is going to affect the local schools.

The grammar schools in this city will open September 10.

CAN'T ATTACH WAGES OF WORKMAN, RULING

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3.—A workman's wages in California cannot be attached for debt, whether he waived exemption from attachment at the time of contracting the debt or not, according to a ruling by Justice of the Peace Forbes. In so doing the judge granted a motion by Attorney C. I. Sweet to have $87.50 of his client's wages released from attachment. The attachment had been made by parties who had acquired notes made by Sweet's client, from a loan shark. In making the ruling Justice Forbes said he was treading heretofore untrodden ground in California and that

A WELL-KNOWN WOMAN SPEAKS.

Los Angeles, Cal.—"It gives me great pleasure to add my testimonial to the many you have already read. I cannot say enough in praise of your great medicine, 'Favorite Prescription.' Had used several different medicines for woman's disorders but found none that did me any good until I learned of yours. Using yours I got quick, excellent results. Will always sing the praises of Dr. Pierce's medicines. My mother and sisters also used them and found that they were all that was claimed for them. It is always a great pleasure to tell a suffering woman of these remedies, and I always find that whoever I tell of the good they will do is afterward ready to join in the praise. May I always be in reach of them?"—MISS MATTIE LOU CARLIS, 1514 S. Ardmore Ave.

Every woman who has reason to believe that backache, headache, pain, low spirits, sleeplessness, irregularity or a catarrhal condition is caused by a derangement of the womanly functions, owes it to herself to speedily overcome the trouble before a general breakdown causes permanent prostration.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a non-alcoholic remedy that any ailing woman can safely take because it is prepared from roots and herbs with pure glycerine, containing tonic properties of the most pronounced character.
